

LISS PARISH COUNCIL PRIVACY NOTICE – STAFF*, COUNCILLORS AND ROLE HOLDERS****

*“Staff” means employees, workers, agency staff and those retained on a temporary or permanent basis

**“Role Holders” includes, volunteers, contractors, agents, and other role holders within the council including former staff*and former councillors. This also includes applicants or candidates for any of these roles.

Your personal data – what is it?

“Personal data” is any information about a living individual which allows them to be identified from that data (for example a name, photograph, video, email address, or address). Identification can be directly using the data itself or by combining it with other information which helps to identify a living individual (e.g. a list of staff may contain personnel ID numbers rather than names but if you use a list a separate list of the ID numbers which give the corresponding names to identify the staff in the first list then the first list will also be treated as personal data). The processing of personal data is governed by legislation relating to personal data which applies in the United Kingdom including the General Data Protection Regulation (the “GDPR”) and other legislation relating to personal data and rights such as the Human Rights Act.

Who are we?

This Privacy Notice is provided to you by Liss Parish Council (“LPC”) which is the data controller for your data.

LPC works together with:

- Other data controllers, such as local authorities, public authorities, central government and agencies such as HMRC and DVLA
- Staff pension providers
- Former and prospective employers
- DBS services suppliers
- Payroll services providers
- Recruitment Agencies
- Credit reference agencies

LPC may need to share personal data LPC holds with them so that they can carry out their responsibilities to LPC and LPC’s community. The organisations referred to above will sometimes be “joint data controllers”. This means they are all responsible to you for how they process your data where for example two or more data controllers are working together for a joint purpose. If there is no joint purpose or collaboration then the data controllers will be independent and will be individually responsible to you.

LPC will comply with data protection law. This says that the personal data LPC holds about you must be:

- Used lawfully, fairly and in a transparent way.
- Collected only for valid purposes that LPC has clearly explained to you and not used in any way that is incompatible with those purposes.

- Relevant to the purposes LPC has told you about and limited only to those purposes.
- Accurate and kept up to date.
- Kept only as long as necessary for the purposes LPC has told you about.
- Kept and destroyed securely including ensuring that appropriate technical and security measures are in place to protect your personal data to protect personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure.

What data does LPC process?

- Names, titles, and aliases, photographs.
- Start date / leaving date
- Contact details such as telephone numbers, addresses, and email addresses.
- Where they are relevant to LPC's legal obligations, or where you provide them to us, LPC may process information such as gender, age, date of birth, marital status, nationality, education/work history, academic/professional qualifications, employment details, hobbies, family composition, and dependants.
- Non-financial identifiers such as passport numbers, driving licence numbers, vehicle registration numbers, taxpayer identification numbers, staff identification numbers, tax reference codes, and national insurance numbers.
- Financial identifiers such as bank account numbers, payment card numbers, payment/transaction identifiers, policy numbers, and claim numbers.
- Financial information such as National Insurance number, pay and pay records, tax code, tax and benefits contributions, expenses claimed.
- Other operational personal data created, obtained, or otherwise processed in the course of carrying out our activities, including but not limited to, CCTV footage, recordings of telephone conversations, IP addresses and website visit histories, logs of visitors, and logs of accidents, injuries and insurance claims.
- Next of kin and emergency contact information
- Recruitment information (including copies of right to work documentation, references and other information included in a CV or cover letter or as part of the application process and referral source (e.g. agency, staff referral))
- Location of employment or workplace.
- Other staff data (not covered above) including; level, performance management information, languages and proficiency; licences/certificates, immigration status; employment status; information for disciplinary and grievance proceedings; and personal biographies.
- CCTV footage and other information obtained through electronic means such as swipecard records.
- Information about your use of LPC information and communications systems.

LPC uses your personal data for some or all of the following purposes:-

Please note: LPC needs all the categories of personal data in the list above primarily to allow us to perform LPC's contract with you and to enable LPC to comply with legal obligations.

- Making a decision about your recruitment or appointment.
- Determining the terms on which you work for LPC.
- Checking you are legally entitled to work in the UK.
- Paying you and, if you are an employee, deducting tax and National Insurance contributions.
- Providing any contractual benefits to you
- Liaising with your pension provider.
- Administering the contract LPC has entered into with you.
- Management and planning, including accounting and auditing.
- Conducting performance reviews, managing performance and determining performance requirements.
- Making decisions about salary reviews and compensation.
- Assessing qualifications for a particular job or task, including decisions about promotions.

- Conducting grievance or disciplinary proceedings.
- Making decisions about your continued employment or engagement.
- Making arrangements for the termination of our working relationship.
- Education, training and development requirements.
- Dealing with legal disputes involving you, including accidents at work.
- Ascertaining your fitness to work.
- Managing sickness absence.
- Complying with health and safety obligations.
- To prevent fraud.
- To monitor your use of our information and communication systems to ensure compliance with LPC's IT policies.
- To ensure network and information security, including preventing unauthorised access to LPC computer and electronic communications systems and preventing malicious software distribution.
- To conduct data analytics studies to review and better understand employee retention and attrition rates.
- Equal opportunities monitoring.
- To undertake activity consistent with LPC's statutory functions and powers including any delegated functions.
- To maintain LPC's own accounts and records;
- To seek your views or comments;
- To process a job application;
- To administer councillors' interests
- To provide a reference.

LPC's processing may also include the use of CCTV systems for monitoring purposes.

Some of the above grounds for processing will overlap and there may be several grounds which justify LPC's use of your personal data.

LPC will only use your personal data when the law allows LPC to. Most commonly, LPC will use your personal data in the following circumstances:

- Where LPC needs to perform the contract LPC has entered into with you.
- Where LPC needs to comply with a legal obligation.

LPC may also use your personal data in the following situations, which are likely to be rare:

- Where LPC needs to protect your interests (or someone else's interests).
- Where it is needed in the public interest or for official purposes.

How LPC uses sensitive personal data

- LPC may process sensitive personal data relating to staff, councillors and role holders including, as appropriate:
  - information about your physical or mental health or condition in order to monitor sick leave and take decisions on your fitness for work;
  - your racial or ethnic origin or religious or similar information in order to monitor compliance with equal opportunities legislation;
  - in order to comply with legal requirements and obligations to third parties.
- These types of data are described in the GDPR as "Special categories of data" and require higher levels of protection. LPC needs to have further justification for collecting, storing and using this type of personal data.
- LPC may process special categories of personal data in the following circumstances:
  - In limited circumstances, with your explicit written consent.
  - Where LPC needs to carry out LPC's legal obligations.

- Where it is needed in the public interest, such as for equal opportunities monitoring or in relation to LPC's pension scheme.
- Where it is needed to assess your working capacity on health grounds, subject to appropriate confidentiality safeguards.
- Less commonly, LPC may process this type of personal data where it is needed in relation to legal claims or where it is needed to protect your interests (or someone else's interests) and you are not capable of giving your consent, or where you have already made the information public.

Does LPC need your consent to process your sensitive personal data?

- LPC does not need your consent if LPC uses your sensitive personal data in accordance with LPC's rights and obligations in the field of employment and social security law.
- In limited circumstances, LPC may approach you for your written consent to allow LPC to process certain sensitive personal data. If LPC does so, LPC will provide you with full details of the personal data that LPC would like and the reason LPC needs it, so that you can carefully consider whether you wish to consent.
- You should be aware that it is not a condition of your contract with LPC that you agree to any request for consent from us.

Information about criminal convictions

- LPC may only use personal data relating to criminal convictions where the law allows LPC to do so. This will usually be where such processing is necessary to carry out LPC's obligations and provided LPC does so in line with LPC's data protection policy.
- Less commonly, LPC may use personal data relating to criminal convictions where it is necessary in relation to legal claims, where it is necessary to protect your interests (or someone else's interests) and you are not capable of giving your consent, or where you have already made the information public.
- LPC will only collect personal data about criminal convictions if it is appropriate given the nature of the role and where LPC is legally able to do so. Where appropriate, LPC will collect personal data about criminal convictions as part of the recruitment process or LPC may be notified of such personal data directly by you in the course of you working for LPC.

What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

Some of LPC's processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation.

LPC may also process data if it is necessary for the performance of a contract with you or to take steps to enter into a contract.

LPC will also process your data in order to assist you in fulfilling your role in LPC including administrative support or if processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation.

Sharing your personal data

Your personal data will only be shared with third parties including other data controllers where it is necessary for the performance of the data controllers' tasks or where you first give us your prior consent. It is likely that LPC will need to share your data with

- Our agents, suppliers and contractors. For example, LPC may ask a commercial provider to manage our HR/ payroll functions, or to maintain LPC's database software;
- Other persons or organisations operating within local community.
- Other data controllers, such as local authorities, public authorities, central government and agencies such as HMRC and DVLA
- Staff pension providers
- Former and prospective employers
- DBS services suppliers
- Payroll services providers
- Recruitment Agencies
- Credit reference agencies

- Professional advisors
- Trade unions or employee representatives

How long does LPC keep your personal data?

LPC will keep some records permanently if legally required to do so. LPC may keep some other records for an extended period of time. For example, it is currently best practice to keep financial records for a minimum period of 8 years to support HMRC audits or provide tax information. LPC may have legal obligations to retain some data in connection with LPC's statutory obligations as a public authority. LPC is permitted to retain data in order to defend or pursue claims. In some cases the law imposes a time limit for such claims (for example 3 years for personal injury claims or 6 years for contract claims). LPC will retain some personal data for this purpose as long as LPC believes it is necessary to be able to defend or pursue a claim. In general, LPC will endeavour to keep data only for as long as LPC needs it. This means that LPC will delete it when it is no longer needed.

Your responsibilities

It is important that the personal data LPC holds about you is accurate and current. Please keep LPC informed if your personal data changes during your working relationship with LPC.

Your rights in connection with personal data

You have the following rights with respect to your personal data:-

When exercising any of the rights listed below, in order to process your request, LPC may need to verify your identity for your security. In such cases LPC will need you to respond with proof of your identity before you can exercise these rights.

1. *The right to access personal data LPC holds on you

- At any point you can contact LPC to request the personal data LPC holds on you as well as why LPC has that personal data, who has access to the personal data and where LPC obtained the personal data from. Once LPC has received your request LPC will respond within one month.
- There are no fees or charges for the first request but additional requests for the same personal data may be subject to an administrative fee.

2. *The right to correct and update the personal data LPC hold on you

- If the data LPC holds on you is out of date, incomplete or incorrect, you can inform LPC and your data will be updated.

3. *The right to have your personal data erased

- If you feel that LP should no longer be using your personal data or that LPC is unlawfully using your personal data, you can request that LPC erase the personal data we hold.
- When LPC receives your request LPC will confirm whether the personal data has been deleted or the reason why it cannot be deleted (for example because LPC needs it to comply with a legal obligation).

4. *The right to object to processing of your personal data or to restrict it to certain purposes only

- You have the right to request that LPC stop processing your personal data or ask LPC to restrict processing. Upon receiving the request LPC will contact you and let you know if LPC is able to comply or if LPC has a legal obligation to continue to process your data.

5. *The right to data portability

- You have the right to request that LPC transfer some of your data to another controller. LPC will comply with your request, where it is feasible to do so, within one month of receiving your request.

6. *The right to withdraw your consent to the processing at any time for any processing of data to which consent was obtained

- You can withdraw your consent easily by telephone, email, or by post (see Contact Details below).

7. *The right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office.

- You can contact the Information Commissioners Office on 0303 123 1113 or via email <https://ico.org.uk/global/contact-us/email/> or at the Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire SK9 5AF.

Transfer of Data Abroad

Any personal data transferred to countries or territories outside the European Economic Area (“EEA”) will only be placed on systems complying with measures giving equivalent protection of personal rights either through international agreements or contracts approved by the European Union. LPC’s website is also accessible from overseas so on occasion some personal data (for example in a newsletter) may be accessed from overseas.

Further processing

If LPC wishes to use your personal data for a new purpose, not covered by this Privacy Notice, then LPC will provide you with a new notice explaining this new use prior to commencing the processing and setting out the relevant purposes and processing conditions. Where and whenever necessary, LPC will seek your prior consent to the new processing, if LPC starts to use your personal data for a purpose not mentioned in this notice.

Changes to this notice

LPC keeps this Privacy Notice under regular review and LPC will place any updates on this web page www.lissparishcouncil.gov.uk. This Notice was last updated in June 2019.
